HOW WE WORK

We Find the Right Home, Then Help You Win It

Buying in DC, Maryland, and Northern Virginia rewards preparation. We learn what you want, show you what fits, tell you what each home is truly worth, and negotiate so you make the strongest offer you are comfortable with.

The Process, Step by Step

1 Discovery and strategy
We learn your lifestyle, the locations you want, the homes you love, and your timeline, and put our agreement in writing.

2 Curated selection
We match homes to your criteria, on the market and before it, so your time goes to the right ones.

3 Due diligence
Comparable sales, property condition, and where the neighborhood is heading, so you know what a home is worth before you offer.

4 Negotiation
Strategic offers, including when several buyers want the same home, with terms that protect you.

5 Closing and beyond
We manage every detail through settlement and remain your resource for years after.

OUR AGREEMENT WITH YOU

Before we tour homes together, we sign a written buyer agreement. It sets out what we do for you, how long we work together, and how we are paid. Our compensation is not set by law and is fully negotiable, and we agree on it in writing before we tour any homes. A seller may cover all or part of it: we ask for that in your written offer, where it is negotiated like any other term. We will negotiate for the seller to cover all of it, and if any part would be yours to pay, you will know the amount and agree to it in writing first. You will never owe us more than your agreement states.

Getting Ready

Talk to our financial team first
A pre-approval sets your range and shows sellers you are ready to buy.

Have your funds ready to show
Keep your down payment and deposit where you can document them quickly.

Know your must-haves
Separate what you need from what you would like. It speeds every decision.

Share your timing
Tell us about a lease end date or a home to sell, so we can plan closing around it.
